

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

No. CR 11-777 PJH

v.

ORDER GRANTING REQUEST FOR IN CAMERA REVIEW

DARRELL ARMSTRONG,

Defendant.

The court GRANTS respondent Oakland Police Department's October 24, 2012 request for in camera review of documents due to be produced pursuant to defendant's Henthorn subpoena on October 31, 2012. Following production, the court will review the documents and rule on disclosure. No hearing and/or appearance is necessary unless the court determines that is the case after its review. The parties are advised that in the event disclosure is ordered, it will be pursuant to a protective order that complies with General Order 69. Respondent is ORDERED to re-submit a protective order that corresponds with the model protective order, Exhibit A to General Order 69.

Additionally, the court limits the scope of the subpoena request to documents dated within five years of the date of August 31, 2011 incident.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: October 25, 2012
